A photograph showing a person in the foreground, seen from the back, holding an open Bible and pointing to the text. They are wearing a red shirt with a white floral pattern. In the background, a large group of people, including men, women, and children, are gathered in a dry, open field under a clear blue sky. Some people are wearing traditional orange and red robes. A large, dark, curved object, possibly a part of a vehicle, is visible on the left side of the frame. The word 'Tanzania' is written in a yellow box at the bottom left.
